Satellite dishes are classified as luxury items and are taxed by Customs regardless of personal use status.

All shipments are subject to customs inspection.

BSC/CTN requirement: The Bordereau de Suivi de Cargaison (Cargo Tracking Note) is a mandatory document for all sea freight imports into Senegal. It must be obtained before shipment departs from origin. The destination agent should advise on the current issuing authority and process.

Senegal applies an 18% VAT on most imports. Personal household goods qualifying for duty-free exemption may not attract VAT, but this should be confirmed with the destination agent at the time of booking.

All solid wood packing materials must comply with ISPM 15 phytosanitary treatment standards.

- Heavy goods vehicles (over 3.5 tonnes) more than 10 years old

The overall age limit for any motor vehicle import is 8 years from year of manufacture.

The destination agent must receive copies of all required vehicle documents well in advance of the shipment's arrival to initiate customs procedures and avoid demurrage and storage charges.

Vehicle customs procedures in Senegal are lengthy; early coordination is essential.

Pets

Requirements

- ISO-compliant microchip (ISO 11784/11785) -- must be implanted before vaccination; all documentation must reflect the microchip number
- Rabies vaccination certificate: vaccination administered between 21 days and 12 months before entry (if a booster is due, the 21-day wait is not required provided the booster is given before the previous vaccination expires; puppies and kittens must be vaccinated after 3 months of age and wait 30 days before travel)
- International veterinary health certificate issued by a licensed veterinarian and endorsed by the government veterinary authority of the originating country, within 10 days of entry (a second certificate should be issued within 48 hours of travel)
- Import authorization from the Directorate of Veterinary Services of Senegal (Direction des Services Vétérinaires) -- required for all dogs and cats and must be obtained before travel
- Records of parasite treatment (internal and external) -- recommended but not mandatory

Specific Information

Microchipping must precede vaccination. The microchip must comply with ISO 11784 or Annex A of ISO 11785. If the chip is not ISO-compliant, the owner must bring a compatible scanner.

Senegal does not require a rabies titer test for entry. However, Senegal is classified by the World Organization for Animal Health as a high-rabies-risk country. Pet owners planning to return their animal to its country of origin after a stay in Senegal should verify whether a titer test will be required for re-entry.

Dogs should be vaccinated against distemper, hepatitis, leptospirosis, and parvovirus. Cats should be vaccinated against feline viral rhinotracheitis, panleukopenia, and feline leukemia. These vaccinations should be current at the time of import.

Pets not meeting import requirements are subject to quarantine, return to origin, or euthanasia at the owner's expense.

Senegal does not publish a list of banned breeds.

Flights should be direct or transit through a rabies-controlled country.

Consignment Instructions

Recommended: Contact the destination agent to ensure all requirements have been met prior to import, especially for differences regarding air and sea shipments.

All documentation must be in French or accompanied by certified French translations. The inventory must be in French, dated, valued, and signed by the owner of the goods.

The original bill of lading is mandatory -- express or telex release is not accepted. Ensure the original OBL is couriered to the destination agent and arrives at least 15 days before the vessel to allow time to obtain the duty-free exemption certificate.

The BSC (Bordereau de Suivi de Cargaison / Cargo Tracking Note) is required for all sea freight to Senegal and must be obtained at origin before departure. The destination agent should advise on the current issuing process.

The Port of Dakar (Port Autonome de Dakar) is the main entry point for sea freight. It is a busy port and demurrage charges accrue quickly. Prompt and complete documentation submission is essential to avoid unnecessary storage fees.

Items purchased within 6 months of import require purchase invoices. Items in original/new packaging do not qualify for the duty-free used goods exemption and will be assessed for duty.

Senegal is a member of ECOWAS and WAEMU (West African Economic and Monetary Union), and applies the WAEMU Common External Tariff. The country has experienced significant economic growth, driven in recent years by offshore oil and gas production following major discoveries in the 2010s.

Islam is the predominant religion, practiced by approximately 95% of the population; the country is known for its religious tolerance and the prominence of Sufi brotherhoods, particularly the Mouride order centered in Touba. Senegalese culture is characterized by the concept of teranga (hospitality), and Dakar has a vibrant arts, music, and culinary scene.
